7/30/2010	6pm ET	7/31/2010	028C	Prisoners of Hope	In August 1964, an American pilot was shot down and captured by the North Vietnamese. In the following years of the Vietnam Conflict, hundreds of American prisoners of war were interrogated, starved, and tortured in Communist prisons. Prisoners of Hope presents the experiences of ten of these individuals. Their stories are filled with suffering and survival; death and deliverance. But above all are their testimonies of courage, faith, and a sustaining hope that refused to die. Narrated by Jeannette Clift George.	2000
8/6/2010	6pm ET	8/7/2010	062	Overlord: A Mighty Host	On June 6, 1944, the greatest military operation in the history of the world succeeded in landing over 150,000 Allied troops on the beaches of northern France. Before the battle of Normandy was won in late August, these troops endured some of the most costly fighting of World War II. "Overlord: A Mighty Host" looks back sixty years on this awesome military event from the point of view of soldiers, sailors, and paratroopers who were involved in the invasion. The documentary examines the role of faith in the lives of these men — on that day in 1944 and today.	2004
8/13/2010	6pm ET	8/14/2010	048C	Sacred Spaces	Colonial churches, meeting houses, and synagogues testify to a nation founded "under God." This program examines the history and architecture of these religious edifices.	2004
8/20/2010	6pm ET	8/21/2010	046C	Saints & Strangers	From the earliest settlers in Jamestown, through the fervent patriotism of the pre-Revolutionary period, and the eventual formation of the original colonies into the United States of America, this documentary examines the religious and spiritual roots of the men and women who founded our country. It addresses religious influences from the Mayflower to the Great Awakening, from Plymouth Rock to the War of Independence. The special also examines the groups of the faithful who were crucial influences during the colonial period--the Church of England, the Puritans, Baptists, Quakers, and others.	2002
8/27/2010	6pm ET	8/28/2010	043	Circle of Earth	Featuring dramatic space footage and poignant stories of faith, this documentary provides a rare glimpse into the personal lives of those who build and launch rockets and those who ride them into space. Narrated by Cliff Robertson.	1996
