FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FAMILYNET CELEBRATES EASTER WITH ORIGINAL NETWORK PRESENTATIONS

April 6, 2009 (Atlanta, GA) – FamilyNet Television will broadcast two original network specials during the Easter Holiday weekend. “Wretched” with Todd Friel...The Big Question, featuring special guest Kirk Cameron, will air on Good Friday, April 10th at 10:00 p.m. (ET). “The Venue” Easter Special, will air on Sunday, April 12th at 5:00 p.m. (ET). Check your local cable guide for channel listings and encore showings or visit www.familynet.com for additional information.

Host Todd Friel, known as an evangelical satirist who provides a unique perspective on the things of this world from an engaging yet entertaining point of view, will host a network special entitled, “The Big Question”. The one-hour presentation will provide answers to questions people often ask such as, Why do some people only attend church on Easter Sunday or New Year’s Eve? Where did I come from? Where will I go when I die? How do I get my spiritual house in order? Is there a God? These questions and many more will be explored during the “Wretched” Easter special. Actor, producer and author Kirk Cameron, known for his role in the hit television series “Growing Pains” as well as his lead role in the movie “FireProof”, (recognized as the #1 independent film in 2008), will make a special appearance on the show. “The Big Question” will be made available on DVD exclusively on www.familynet.com.

In addition to “Wretched” with Todd Friel, FamilyNet will air a series of back-to-back concerts on Easter Sunday featuring some of today’s top Christian recording artists and groups including: Rebecca St. James, Chris Rice, MercyMe and Phillips, Craig & Dean to name a few.
